MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Public Affairs
Acting General Counsel

SA/DCI
SA/DCI

FROM: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Speaking Invitation

1. I had a phone call from a friend of mine, Robert Marston, who is President of the University of Florida. He was urging me on behalf of a man named Reese Smith, the President-elect of the American Bar Association, to accept an invitation to speak at the National Conference of Bar Presidents on 10 August in Dallas. Reese Smith heard my talk in Boca Raton and would like me to repeat it or something like it for this group of lawyers. It would be at 12:00 noon.

2. We can wait until the letter of invitation comes from Smith to decide on this one, but if any of you have any strong views pro or con, let me know.
